

AIA Arkansas 2014 Convention ~ October 16-18 ~ Hot Springs Convention Center

ARCHITECT AS ARTIST EXHIBIT

ENTRY FORM

AIA Arkansas member architects, associates and University of Arkansas architecture students are invited to display fine art works at the 2014 AIA State Convention.

There will be prizes awarded for all categories. Awards will be presented at the banquet, Friday night, October 17, 2014.

The medium will be of your choosing. Don't limit yourself to new works you have created; look back to works that you have done throughout your career, including your works from you college days! Any drawing, painting, sculpture, etc. can be entered in the competition.

Entries will be judged by an professional. Cash prizes will be awarded in three categories; Architect, Associate, and Student. In addition, we are working on having the winning works exhibited in several galleries around the state.

Display space will be open during convention hours and locked after hours or when convention activities are off site. AIA Arkansas will provide personnel within display area during exhibition hours.

The Arkansas Chapter of the American Institute of Architects will assume no responsibility for loss or damage to any submitted work for any reason, before, during, or after the exhibition. Insurance protection is the responsibility of each artist. Submitting a work of art to this exhibition shall imply agreement on the part of the artist to all conditions set forth.

Artists are responsible for bringing an easel, stand or other method to display submitted artwork. Hanging of artwork on walls is not allowed by the convention center.
