

Thursday, September 4, 2025, 4:30-6:00 PM

At Theater Squared Watch for updates on virtual option, registration link & CEUs

PANEL DISCUSSION:

Remembering Japanese American Incarceration Camps of Arkansas

Nancy Chikaraishi, AIA

Architect, artist, educator whose family lived in the Rohwer, Arkansas camp

Kimball Erdman

Robyn Lane

Angelia Payne

Joshua Youngblood

Rising Above team members from the Fay Jones School of Architecture + Design, Center for Advanced Spatial Technologies, and Special Collections at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville

Painting of Rohwer Camp by Sazuko Inouye (Mabel Rose Jamison Vogel / Rosalie Santine Gould Collection, Butler Center for Arkansas Studies). Source: www.risingabove.cast.uark.edu/about

Historical overview

Life Interrupted: artwork inspired by family stories

Rising Above in Arkansas: Japanese American Incarceration at Rohwer and Jerome During World War II

Q&A Discussion

SAVE THE DATE

Arkansas

DEI COMMITTEE